Dear 4th Degree Sir Knights

The last meeting was held at Bloomington K of C Hall in attendance was 18 Sir Knights and ladies.

First thing I wish to apologize to the Knights who received a hard copy of the newsletter. When I proof read my newsletter I did not see that I had the wrong date for our upcoming meeting it was to be the second Thursday not second Wednesday.

We had no new communications. We however talked about Knights stepping up to be officers for the coming up fraternal year. We had three officers agreed to switch positions. Faithful Navigator Roger Petri with Faithful Comptroller Dennis Fries and Faithful Trustee Tade Laden move to Faithful Scribe

June we will vote on the officers, for the fraternal year 2012-2013.

“Voices of the Saints”
Anthony of Padua
(1195-1231)

St. Anthony intrigued people because his personality was a balance of contradictory, yet complementary, qualities. He was a remarkable series of “both” and “ands.” Anthony of Padua was both physically unimpressive and personally dynamic. Both reticent and charismatic, both learned and practical, both high-minded and down-to-earth.

Something to think about!

Anger Management

Therefore, if you... recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer gift.

Matthew 5:23-24

WORSHIP AT MASS can be easy. We pray the prayers, sing the songs, experience the Holy Eucharist and don't have to talk with anyone, other than maybe during the sign of peace. Talk about a beautiful, peaceful way to spend an hour or so!

But God wants more than quiet time with us. He asks us to seek forgiveness for our harsh words with our families, our irritation with the neighbors and our resentment of our lazy coworkers. That can be hard; anger's a powerful emotion. But every time we truly forgive, we dissipate anger's power and move closer to our better selves-and to God.

Forgive us our trespasses, O Lord, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Let us also remember the religious, our Knights, service men and women who are serving and have served in all wars. LET US ALSO PRAY FOR THE CONVERSION FOR OUR COUNTRY, ENEMIES & NON BELIVERS.
